

Introduction to Drypoint Printing

with tutor Caitlin Hepworth
presented by Hughes Studio

Dates: Saturday 7th Nov 2020

Times: 10am – 5pm

Fees: $150 inc materials and GST

Venue: Level 1: The Woodford Academy – 90-92, Great Western Hwy Woodford

Level: Beginner

Workshop Description: During this one day workshop students will gain a sound introduction to Drypoint Printing. Students will develop two compositions out of found or drawn imagery before transferring these to acetate plates with a scribe. Using soya based inks students will create a proof print to evaluate their plate before developing a series of prints using the intaglio press. Students will have opportunity to selectively embellish prints with hand colouring using watercolour. Each participant will be provided with a mount board and foamcore backing suitable for display in an 8 x 10 frame.

Bring – Please wear closed shoes, bring an apron, safety glasses, an old towel and wet wipes.

Imagery will be supplied - although you may also bring imagery to work from.

Please be aware that imagery is reversed when printed.

About Caitlin: Graduating from the National Art School in 2000 with a BFA in Sculpture, Caitlin went on to complete a Master of Teaching in Visual Arts at the University of Sydney in 2002.
