

‘Land Marks’ with Tina Frost Clayton
Presented by Hughes Studio

Dates: Wednesday 28th May 2017

Times: 9am – 3pm

Fees: $80

Ages: 8 – 12 years (Yr 3 – Yr 7)

Venue: Hughes Studio at The Woodford Academy

Address: 90 – 92 Great Western Highway, Woodford.

Workshop Description:

Create a variety of artworks drawing inspiration from Australian environmentalist, conservationist and artist John Wolseley. Observe natural objects, make marks using a variety of drawing tools, employ rubbing techniques and use charcoal and watercolours for interesting tonal effects. Explore composition and understand the importance of the artist’s artmaking process. Conclude the day with the creation of a wire dragonfly.

Materials: All materials are provided for the specified activities.

About Tina: Tina Frost Clayton is a Blue Mountains visual artist and teacher. She has Master of Art Therapy from WSU and previously a Dip Teach with extensive experience in teaching in NSW schools from 1976 – 2008. Tina was also employed to write, illustrate, and teach art programs for NSW Department of Education primary schools. More recently Tina has worked in conjunction with schools and community to create murals and artworks at Wentworth Falls Primary School and Lethbridge Park Primary School. She has taught drawing and creativity to adults and children at regional art galleries and community colleges in NSW. Tina’s artworks are held in public and private collections including The Australian Stockman’s Hall of Fame and Arthur Boyd’s Bundanon Education Centre.
